What is CYN?
Connecting Young Nebraskans (CYN) is a statewide network designed to connect, empower and retain young Nebraskans. CYN strives to enhance opportunities for individuals to impact their communities through networking and learning experiences. The network is a dynamic and diverse group of peers with a passion for making a difference, a willingness to learn and the desire to build important relationships to help shape the future of Nebraska.

An annual summit
The annual CYN Summit is an incredible opportunity for young Nebraskans to network, enhance skills and discuss the future. Comprised of an informal social, roundtable discussions and dynamic speakers, the summit features various opportunities for professional, personal, civic and community development.

The CYN Summit also provides an unparalleled platform for young Nebraskans to build new relationships and strengthen old ones. Drawing young Nebraskans from all parts of Nebraska and from both the private and public working sectors, the CYN Summit encourages collaboration beyond individual fields and geographic regions which strengthens the social infrastructure of Nebraska.

Arguably one of the most diverse and interactive summits in the state, the CYN Summit is created for and planned by young Nebraskans that are passionate about the future of Nebraska. The summit serves as an outlet for candid discussions about how young leaders can influence the future of their communities and Nebraska. Many conference participants leave inspired and ready to take action in their communities.

The 2014 CYN Summit
This year, the CYN Summit will be in Kearney. The November 6 Thursday night social will highlight Kearney’s sense of community and regional assets. The November 7 Friday summit will be exciting and informative, and it will allow participants to talk openly about the future of Nebraska.
