The greatest strength of any business is its hard-working, well-rounded employees. That’s why encouraging the growth of an employee, both professionally and personally, is a worthwhile investment. The 2014 Connecting Young Nebraskans (CYN) Summit is an annual, statewide conference for young employees that will do just that. This year’s Summit is set for Friday, November 7th in Kearney, Nebraska. The $69 registration fee covers admittance to both the CYN Summit on Friday and a social for all participants on Thursday, November 6th. Below are the exciting opportunities that await summit participants.

Professional Development ::
With sessions to develop new skills while sharpening old skills, the CYN Summit offers young Nebraskans opportunities to grow into even more valuable members of the workforce.

Networking ::
The CYN Summit provides an unparalleled platform for young Nebraskans from all parts of the state to build new relationships and strengthen old relationships.

Personal Development ::
Inspiration is sometimes hard to come by, but the CYN Summit strives to leave young Nebraskans more motivated, energized and passionate about the future of Nebraska.

Civic Development ::
Improving citizenship is a crucial part of our state’s future. The CYN Summit addresses the many faces of civic engagement, including service and leadership development.

Community Development ::
Business thrives in strong communities. The CYN Summit will include tips on how to strengthen and invigorate communities for better business and a better quality of life.

Collaboration ::
The CYN Summit encourages an exchange of ideas that extends beyond individual fields. In addition to drawing together employees from across the state’s geography, the CYN Summit brings together a diverse crowd from both the private and public sectors.

Current and Future Trend Education ::
Created for and planned by young Nebraskans, the CYN Summit is an outlet for discussion and education about current trends and the latest technologies that equip young Nebraskans to be more efficient in the workplace.

A High-Caliber Summit, Offered at a Reasonable Price ::
Arguably one of the most diverse and interactive summits in the state, the CYN Summit offers dynamic presentations facilitated by some of the state’s best speakers and topic experts. The affordable registration fee includes breakfast and lunch during the Friday summit, as well as the activities held during the Thursday evening social.
