UN-L Interns Move Forward With Projects

By Janet Larreau

Two University of Nebraska-Lincoln students are working on a new playground structure at Arnold City Park. The structure is expected to be completed before the end of the year. The project is part of a senior leadership course in agricultural education, as well as part of a local community service project. The students are playing an active role in the design and construction of the playground equipment.

Chesnutt Pleads Guilty to Amended Charges

By Janet Larreau

Fifty-four-year-old Jane Chesnutt, a resident of Platte Center, was originally charged with first degree arson in connection with a fire that occurred at the Arnold Fire Hall in February 2019. She has since agreed to plead guilty to the amended charges.

The Wild West Days are sponsored by the Sandhills Open Road Challenge and the Salvation Army. The fireworks are sponsored by the Arnold Chamber.

Farm Credit Services Labor, Check, to Help New Playground Structure

By Janet Larreau

Farm Credit Services Provided a donation of $7,836.40 to help with New Playground Structure. They also donated $750.00, which Carson said isn’t always the case.

Here’s what to expect:

1. The fireworks will be launched around 9:00 p.m. from the Arnold Fire Hall, followed by an additional show at approximately 11:30 p.m.
2. Fireworks will also be launched from Broken Bow through the Broken Bow Fire Department.
3. The firework show is sponsored by the Arnold Chamber.

Residents will be treated to a spectacular display of colorful fireworks. The display will start at dusk and will include a variety of different effects. The fireworks will be set off by the American Legion Post 130 and the Salvation Army.

Fireworks Display Set for the 4th

By Kacee Dvorak

8-H Stories and sponsorships are received, we are hoping to print them in color!

The Arnold Sentinel will be showcasing 4-H! We need your help!

We are looking for stories and experiences being in 4-H. It is affordable and will help us share the value of being in 4-H. Stories and 4-H exhibit cards will be included in the display this year.

The Arnold Sentinel is excited to announce the 4-H Stories Display Set. The display set will feature 4-H stories on 4-H Stars, 4-H youth, and 4-H projects. The display set will be available for viewing at the 4-H Stars exhibit during the fair.
